the international fellowship of evangelical students

The story of IFES is unique. A story of a work of God in the hands of students. A story dependent on God, and on the prayers of his Church.

This culturally and linguistically diverse region is searching for its identity. In these countries which face the challenges of poverty, of alumni migration, of developing plans to build a sustainable future, the IFES movements find themselves in a unique position to contribute to the strengthening of the region through their work with students.

Please pray for...

- the region's missions initiatives which equip Christian students with the vision and skills needed to

COUNTRIES IN THE REGION

Antigua, Barbados, Belize, French Guiana, Guadeloupe, Guyana, Haiti, Jamaica, Martinique, St Lucia, Suriname, Trinidad & Tobago

reach Caribbean students with the gospel;

- the national movements as they help students respond biblically and compassionately to challenges in their societies such as poverty and HIV/AIDS;
- the flourishing high schools ministry to be matched by a tertiary ministry which reaches and disciples students through vibrant campus groups;
- Regional staff as they help national movements build sustainable funding bases and structures, and train their staff;

- Godly alumni who will bring salt and light to every area of Caribbean society.

God began the story of IFES with small, unconnected groups of Christian students determined to proclaim the gospel on their campuses. When they heard of students in other countries fired by the same dream, the dream began to grow. The International Fellowship of Evangelical Students (IFES) was founded in 1947 by evangelical student movements from ten nations*. All covenanted to work and pray to see a witness to Christ established in every university in the world.

There are now indigenous student groups in 150 countries, but there is still much work to do. We want more students to have the opportunity to hear and respond to the gospel. By God's grace, we want to see more Christian graduates living as salt and light and shaping society. Find out more at www.ifesworld.org

The need now is for:

- regular prayer - sign up for prayerline, a weekly email to inform and encourage your prayers
- financial support - help IFES staff and students seize open doors to bring the gospel to places where it is desperately needed
- people with a heart for cross cultural mission - contact IFES or your National Movement

'I warmly commend the work of IFES. It would be hard to imagine a group that is more strategic. Everywhere I go I meet Christian leaders whose lives have been touched by IFES' emphasis on biblical evangelism and discipleship.' Dr Billy Graham
